

MNAC Teen Autumn Art Workshop

On Wednesday, September 12 10 students went to the Conference Teen Autumn Art Workshop at the Nebraska 4-H Camp in Halsey. The students had an opportunity to attend workshops taught by various professional artist and instructors from the state of Nebraska.

The instructors were Gib Neal, who taught Drawing from Nature. Watercolor was taught by Jan Keller. Paul Loomer had students do a polymer clay project and Christy Kosmicki taught a drawing lesson that taught the participants how to turn a drawing into a Cubistic style.

Each school was limited to 10 participants. The students that had the opportunity to attend were: Colten Barela, Colt Hesseltine, Cooper Bass, Torrance Hodge, Emily Martindale, Carlie Collier, Brooklyn Leach, Kylie Hewett, Madison Glidden, and Madison Marten.

Students art from the workshop will be on display for the month of October in the school's library and commons area.

